

SUBMISSION

Brazilian Journalism Research is a semi-annual scientific journal published by the Brazilian Journalism Researchers Association ( SBPJor). The society is dedicated to theory and research in journalism (both theoretical and empirical work).

Submission: The articles should be originals in the english and in the portuguese languages; preference will be assigned to empirical research reports; authors should send a copy of the manuscript of the article, labeled and typed in double space throughout, to the following electronic addresses:

beatrizbecker@uol.com.br
tattianat@gmail.com

Articles: each manuscript should contain:

- Title and subtitle page with the full name(s) of the author(s) with current affiliation and full regular mail and electronic mail address;
- Authors should also list five key words;
- Abstract of 100-150 words;
- Main text of about 7,000 words clearly organized, with a clear hierarchy of headings and subheadings; use a clear readable style;
- References in both text and notes should be cited in the text as (author, date, page)
- Footnotes should be displayed at the bottom of the page;
- Tables, figures, photos and illustrations should have a good range of contrast; they should also be numbered consecutively and must be clearly identified;
- An alphabetical reference section should follow the text; use Harvard style;
- A short (up to 5 lines) biographical note should also be supplied on a separate sheet;
- Permissions from copyright holders: authors are responsible for obtaining permissions from copyright holders for reproducing any quotation, illustration or photo previously published elsewhere;

Book reviews: the journal will include a section in which relevant books are reviewed; manuscripts in clear readable style should have up to 1,000 words and should be sent to the address below.
